

George Washington Writing Assignment

In a short essay, answer the following questions:

George Washington's farewell address to the nation urged Americans to lay aside partisan divisions and to cultivate commercial ties with Europe, not political ones. Analyze the wisdom of Washington's warning. Do you think he was right? Why or why not? If the United States implemented Washington's advice in today's domestic and foreign policies, what would be different?